LYON TRELGOVEN - for John Anderson,
a Unitholder.

The Applicant seeks an Order amending the Declaration & Description relating to the Superintendent's Suite.

The unitholder, Anderson, asserts that the Applicant ought to have sought consent under s. 107 (1) (d) of the Act. The Applicant asserts that there is an "error or inconsistency" and that it is

An inconsistency has resulted in the declaration or description that it is desirable to correct some of the errors in Carton-Condaminio Corporation No. 26 v. Nagar (2009) Corwell Qnt. 640 (SC) and find it to be instructive in this instance.

I am therefore of the view that it is appropriate to proceed under s. 107. Notwithstanding the wording of s. 107, the proper administration of justice and the desirability of avoidance of a multiplicity of proceedings and consideration of potential future costs favor proceeding in this fashion. Counsel have jointly submitted that there be no order as to costs & I do order that no costs shall be awarded in this instance.

Order to go in the form attached.
